Petition to recall Shana Ball from the office of Palmer Lake Board of Trustees.

Section 31-4-502, C.R.S.

General statement of grounds for recall:

Shana Ball failed to provide fair, balanced, and well-informed leadership.

Examples include but are not limited to:

- On December 12th, unlawfully and recklessly approved annexation eligibility despite overwhelming public opposition.
- Participated in executive session collusion, including:
  - An unrecorded vote in October 2024 for the UCC disconnection.
  - The November 2024 vote on annexation impact reports for Buc-ee's.
- Failed to properly review the annexation application and approved a plan that illegally annexed private property.
- Dismissed the public before voting, violating transparency and accountability principles.
- Deferred to the annexation applicant instead of conducting independent research or seeking legal counsel.
- Violated C.R.S. 24-6-401, et. seq., Colorado Open Meeting Laws by:
  - Restricting public participation.
  - Failing to provide adequate meeting space.
  - Ignoring widespread community concerns.
- Refused to relocate the meeting to accommodate the large number of concerned residents.
- Approved contracts exceeding $25,000, drafted by the annexation applicant, creating a conflict of interest.
- Concealed the nature of these contracts and misrepresented them during the November 14, 2024 Board of Trustees meeting.
- Allowed legal counsel to be funded by the annexation applicant, raising ethical concerns.

For these reasons, Shana Ball should be immediately recalled.

The following three people comprise the committee designated to represent the signers in all matters affecting the petition:

Name:
Elizabeth Harris
Dailce Faguant
